Chancellor, Cavendish University Uganda

MESSAGE FROM THE CHANCELLOR

It is my sincere pleasure to preside over this sixth graduation ceremony of Cavendish University Uganda.

It has been a long journey for the students, their parents and guardians, and the university as a whole that brought us to this auspicious destination and great celebration.

It is safe to say that you all started this journey to fulfill a dream, a long held desire or a deeply held belief that there is more for you to do in the world.

You are all destined for greatness! I don't mean that you will all be famous, although that may happen. No what I do mean is that you are all destined to be great in the little and big things you will do to move your countries and our continent forward.

Greatness is finding, like His Excellency Nelson Mandela did, an ideal, no matter how basic and fundamental, for which you are willing to die. Greatness is seizing each moment with commitment and gratitude for the numerous opportunities you have been given to start over, to move forward, to make right, to have audacious dreams like those of former President Obama of the United States of America and with whom we all share a heritage; the opportunities to contribute, through our hard work and entrepreneurship, to the development and ensure the greatness of our lands.

Whether it be by teaching the future generation, protecting our environments, seeking the best solutions that facilitate economic and social development, or keeping our communities healthy.

I conclude this message with a quote from a commencement speech delivered almost 15 years ago by Kofi Annan to students at the College of William and Mary in a similar setting:

“Many of you are about to choose your careers [...] I hope that all of you, whatever your profession, will be seeking to serve the public and contribute to the welfare not only of your country but of all your fellow human beings – especially those who live in poverty and misery [...] and yearn for lives free from want and free from fear.”

Congratulations! Go forth to fulfill your purpose. Make us proud.

Prof Olubayi Olubayi

Chair of University Council

Congratulations to the Graduands of the sixth graduation ceremony of Cavendish University Uganda. Nothing is as satisfying as the feeling of great accomplishment at one's graduation, so savor this moment and celebrate your grit and courage to take advantage of the opportunity to join the top 5% of the world's population of those who have attended and graduated from a university. Well done!

As the Chair of the University Council, I would like to congratulate your parents and sponsors who have stood with you through your journey. I would also like to thank you indeed for entrusting us with the academic and professional growth of your child, employee, or spouse. I am proud to have supervised the incredible transformation of the University over the last few months that has seen a re-focusing of academic program offerings, renovations of all our facilities, improved ICTs and a new student-centered approach to services and teaching methods.

As you venture out into the world of service, employment and entrepreneurship, I urge you to carry within you the core values that we have instilled in you; self-reliance, integrity, excellence, responsibility, respect, and innovation. With these values you will be able to truly become exceptional citizens.

In addition, I urge you to keep learning – this will keep you always relevant and will be able to transform yourselves into what each community will need. Make sure you keep cultivating the 5 minds that you will need to be successful in the 21st century and beyond; the disciplined mind, the synthesizing mind, the creating mind, the respectful mind and the ethical mind (Gardner, 2008).

We are proud of all our students and look forward to following the great things you will all accomplish as alumni.

Congratulations from the entire University Council!

Prof Koi Muchira Tirima

Vice Chancellor

I am very pleased to congratulate you on your graduation on behalf of the entire academic staff and all the faculty members. Today we celebrate you and your accomplishments.

At Cavendish University Uganda, we are proud to say that we have taught you all how to be self-reliant, honest, creative & innovative, responsible & respectful as you pursue excellence in your careers and in service to communities.

If you carry these values throughout your lives you will without a doubt transform every place blessed with your presence into a productive and healthy place – be it in your homes, work place or community.

MESSAGE FROM THE VICE CHANCELLOR

Today, I want to leave you with three ideas that continually inspire me and motivate me to apply myself, grow and serve. The first is about purpose: many of you are very blessed to have found your purpose early in life. For some of you, the search is still on. I want to encourage you all – keep searching, keep reviewing and reminding yourself of why you are occupying space on this amazing planet we call home.

When you do this, all your actions will be focused on making sure you fulfill your purpose. Nothing will be too hard to do, no sacrifice too high because you will know what the result is; to live out your purpose well. The second idea is to be very clear for YOURSELF, what success means. Success for some means the flashy car and huge homes – this is alright as it helps many see what is possible and what it takes to create and acquire such things.

However, for many success means bringing up healthy well-balance children, impacting your communities in a positive way, and leveraging your skills, talents, and energy to improve everything around you. I believe that the two, financial prosperity and fulfilling service are not mutually exclusive.

In one of his last recorded speeches, Socrates said (I paraphrase) “...this is the greatest good to man, to discourse daily on virtue and other things which you have heard discussed and examined, that a life without investigation is not worth living.” The third powerful idea that inspire and motivates me is reflection. I mean taking the time to think back and learn from my experiences and the experiences of others, to reflect deeply about my present time – to be truly present every moment of every day, and to contemplate seriously and in a focused way about the future and the role I play, not only my life but, in my family’s, community’s and nation’s future.

6th Graduation Ceremony

This has helped me be very clear about how each decisions I make influences my life, my future and the lives of those around me.

As you venture out into the world, I would like to share a quote from Demosthenes, who was long considered to be the best orator of ancient Greece who said:

“Every citizen of [...] worth ought to ...maintain the purpose of a firm mind and the course suited to his country’s pre-eminence, and on all occasions and in his actions the spirit of Patriotism.”

We believe that your time at Cavendish University Uganda has transformed you into responsible citizens. We will eagerly watch your lives of greatness

CONGRATULATION TO ALL OF YOU! GO OUT TO SERVE AND MAKE A GREAT LIFE.

Mr. David Mutabanura

Executive Director,
Cavendish University Uganda

The great Nelson Mandela once said, “We must use time wisely and forever realise that the time is always ripe to do right”.

I congratulate each and every one of you for using your time wisely, for had you not done so, you would not be graduating today.

This is the beginning of a new chapter in your lives, one where our expectation is that you will continue to learn because education is not an end unto itself, but a journey.

As an institution of higher learning, we have made every effort to transform you into self-confident citizens, entrepreneurs or employees who can exercise sound judgment and persevere through tough times. During your time with us you have been taught by a faculty that is competent and caring, with relevant professional experience; you have been provided with state of the art infrastructure, equipment and unmatched student services.

You have also been confident of learning in a stable environment that is backed by an internationally recognized promoter and been allowed enough exposure through internships to prepare you for the job market. None of this has been an accident, but by design.

At Cavendish University Uganda, we value integrity and responsibility. Success without integrity is short-lived, and wealth without accountability beggars a nation. Remember, bad news travels fast, especially in the age of globalization where social media usage has overtaken traditional modes of news transmission. Practice good citizenship where ever you go because you are now our Brand Ambassador.

I leave you with a final thought, “Imagination is more important than knowledge,” Albert Einstein. To this I would add that, beyond the knowledge acquired at Cavendish University, you should reflect on how well you could utilize the relationships you have made and the experiences you have shared while at our very Pan-African University.

6th Graduation Ceremony

Yes, Success Begins at Cavendish University Uganda, we have laid the foundation, now let your imagination take you the rest of the way, free from any limitations, apart from those you choose to set for yourselves. As we say in Luganda, Akuume, God bless you all, as you set out on your new journey.

Congratulations
